

Rules of the Challenge des Fous

Any cyclist who has made any of the following treks: the Félés du Grand Colombier, or the Fadas of Puy Mary or the Sixphonnés of Mount Brouilly is automatically enrolled in the Challenge des Fous. This honorific challenge is validated to any cyclist who has realized his three permanent hikes and achieved those by his muscular strength only.

Only cyclists holding the rank of Nabuchodonosor of the Sixphonnés of Mont Brouilly without electric assistance, will be admitted to participate in this challenge.

Four grades are possible:

- the Petit Barjot grade is awarded to any cyclist who has completed the three hikes during his career;
- the Grand Azimuth grade is awarded to any cyclist who has homologated the three hikes in a calendar year;
- the Totalement Déjanté grade is awarded to any cyclist who has approved the three hikes within a maximum of one month from day to day.
- the Intenable Déchaîné grade is awarded to any cyclist who has approved the three hikes within a maximum of three days.

The homologation card, which eventually becomes the diploma, will be given to the participant during his first validation of one of the three hikes, the card will be transmitted together with the road map, for the homologations of the subsequent hikes for validation of the final rank after completion of the third.
